About Daughter for Hire

I've always had a soft spot for working with seniors, and with my parents now in that particular segment of the population, I'm even more dedicated to seeing them happy and content. I've always admired and respected the wisdom and confidence that comes from living through the challenges of life.

I'd been looking for someone to assist my father with chores and errands, things he was having a hard time doing now that he's close to 80. Since we live far apart, I haven't been able to help him, and it was really important to me that I find someone who wouldn't just help out, but who would genuinely care about him. I really wanted someone compassionate and caring, yet professional and respectful and it finally dawned on me, I was looking for someone like me, a Daughter for Hire!

My goal is make you or your loved one feel comfortable, nurtured and productive, without having to lift a finger. My name is Mitzi Robinson and as a Daughter for Hire, YOU are my highest priority.

I am dedicated to giving seniors the peace of mind they deserve.
